| WORKSHOPS July 7-9 a.m.—noon | Workshop B. Understanding the SAT Leader: Patti Delacruz Find out which literacy skills the SAT prioritizes and how teachers can help students prepare for this critical assessment. We will examine more closely how the SAT compares and contrasts to the ACT, how Common Core standards translate to the SAT, and how classroom teachers can facilitate mini-lessons that equip their students for the every section of this newly revised standardized challenge. (Open to all teachers) Registration Deadline: June 30 |
| Friday, July 21 9 a.m.—noon | Workshop C. Writing the College Essay Leader: Patti Delacruz CAWPer Patti Delacruz has been studying this gatekeeper genre and has developed a workshop for other teachers to share what she has learned. We will explore methods of empowering students to understand the nuances of college applications and to address writing prompts through research and an introspective writing process. (Open to all teachers) Registration Deadline: July 17 |

You don't have to leave town to have fun!
